NATIONAL PRESIDENT Volunteer Position Description

POSITION OVERVIEW

The National President shall be the chief executive officer of the Organization and, subject to the control of the Board, shall:

- Provide leadership and broad guidance to the Organization in all its activities;
- Preside, when present, at the meetings of the executive members and at the meetings of the Board;
- Nominate, subject to the approval of a majority of the entire Board and without prejudice to the rights of all Board members to make such nominations, members of Board committees as and when needed;
- Have the general powers and duties usually vested in the office of President of a nonprofit volunteer organization;
- Prepare and submit at each NAGM a written annual report covering the Organization's activities for the twelve months ending on the date of the Meeting; and
- Have such other powers and duties as may be prescribed by the Board or these Bylaws.
